Sample Questions

Preparing for some sample questions before the interview will enable you to be more confident. It is always a good idea to practice these sample questions with a friend or family member.

The most basic questions you can expect in almost every interview are:

- Tell me about yourself.
- Why do you want to work at our organization?
- Why are you good for this role?
- Why should we hire you?
- What can you offer to our organization?
- What makes you a leader?
- Are you a good follower?

Other questions can include any or a combination of the following:

- Tell us about a challenge you came across in school or at work, and how you overcame it?
- What are your strengths and weaknesses?
- They may pick things from your resume and ask you to expand upon them, so be prepared to talk about all the experiences you mentioned on paper.
- How do you manage different priorities at once / how do you manage your time?
- How do you work in a team?
- Where do you see yourself in the next 5 years?
- What are your long term career goals?
- What is your dream job?
- How do you handle feedback from your supervisor?
- How would you work with someone you find difficult?
- Are you willing to work in the field?

More technical questions related to your relevant subject may also be asked.
